BILLY'S WORLD OF FRIENDS

Billy Visits India

Trip 1

This is Billy. Billy lives in China. One evening, he called his friend Ajay.

“Ajay, guess what? I'm coming to visit you in India!”

“Really, Billy? That's amazing!” said Ajay. “I'll show you everything!”

★ What would you show a friend in your town?

Billy hopped into his little red plane. Zoom! He flew over the Himalayas, the tallest mountains in the world.

★ Can you make a zooming plane sound?

Here is India! More people live in India than in any other country in the world.

★ Can you find the elephant on the map?

“Namaste, Billy!” said Ajay. Namaste means hello. People often press their hands together and give a little bow when they say it.

★ Say it with Ajay: nuh-muh-STAY!

First stop: the Taj Mahal! It's made of shiny white marble. It seems to change color as the sun moves across the sky.

★ Count the tall towers. How many can you see?

Next, yummy street food! Billy tried a samosa, a crispy triangle filled with potatoes and peas.

★ Can you find the hot chili peppers?

Then it was Diwali, the Festival of Lights! Ajay's family lit little clay lamps called diyas and made a colorful pattern called a rangoli.

★ How many little lamps can you count?

Too soon, it was time to fly home. “Thank you, Ajay! This was the best trip ever!”

Billy got a shiny new India stamp in his passport.

Where will Billy fly next?

Billy has friends all around the world. Each trip, he gets a new stamp. Can you guess who he'll visit next?
